- Educate employees about the prevention and detection of child abuse; and
- Facilitate the reporting of any inappropriate behaviour or suspected abusive activities.
- Be familiar with the types of abuse that might occur within their area of responsibility and be alert for any indications of such conduct.

All staff/volunteers/contractors share in the responsibility for:

- Provide an environment that is supportive of all children’s emotional and physical safety.

4.2 DEFINITIONS

Child means a person below the age of 18 years unless, under the law applicable to the child, majority is attained earlier.

Child protection means any responsibility, measure or activity undertaken to safeguard children from harm.

Child abuse means all forms of physical abuse, emotional ill-treatment, sexual abuse and exploitation, neglect or negligent treatment, commercial (e.g. for financial gain) or other exploitation of a child and includes any actions that results in actual or potential harm to a child.

Child sexual assault is any act which exposes a child to, or involves a child in, sexual processes beyond his or her understanding or contrary to accepted community standards. Sexually abusive behaviours can include the fondling of genitals, masturbation, oral sex, vaginal or anal penetration by a penis, finger or any other object, fondling of breasts, voyeurism, exhibitionism, and exposing the child to or involving the child in pornography. It includes child grooming, which refers to actions deliberately undertaken with the aim of befriending and establishing an emotional connection with a child to lower the child’s inhibitions in preparation for sexual activity with the child.

Reasonable grounds for belief is a belief based on reasonable grounds that child abuse has occurred when all known considerations or facts relevant to the formation of a belief are taken into account and these are objectively assessed. Circumstances or considerations may include the source of the allegation and how it was communicated, the nature of and details of the allegation, and whether there are any other related matters known regarding the alleged perpetrator.

A reasonable belief is formed if a reasonable person believes that:

- a) The child is in need of protection,
- b) The child has suffered or is likely to suffer “significant harm as a result of physical injury”,
- c) The parents are unable or unwilling to protect the child.

A ‘reasonable belief’ or a ‘belief on reasonable grounds’ is not the same as having proof, but is more than mere rumour or speculation.

A ‘reasonable belief’ is formed if a reasonable person in the same position would have formed the belief on the same grounds. For example, a ‘reasonable belief’ might be formed if:

- a) A child states that they have been physically or sexually abused;
- b) A child states that they know someone who has been physically or sexually abused (sometimes the child may be talking about themselves);
- c) Someone who knows a child states that the child has been physically or sexually abused;
- d) Professional observations of the child’s behaviour or development leads a professional to form a belief that the child has been physically or sexually abused or is likely to be abused; and/or
- e) Signs of abuse lead to a belief that the child has been physically or sexually abused.

4.3 EMPLOYMENT OF NEW PERSONNEL

Youth Insearch undertakes a comprehensive recruitment and screening process for all workers and volunteers which aims to:

- Promote and protect the safety of all children under the care of the organisation;
- Identify the safest and most suitable people who share Youth Insearch's values and commitment to protect children; and
- Prevent a person from working at Youth Insearch if they pose a risk to children.

Youth Insearch requires all workers/volunteers to pass through the organisation's recruitment and screening processes prior to commencing their engagement with Youth Insearch Foundation.

Youth Insearch may require applicants to provide a police check in accordance with the law and as appropriate, before they commence working at Youth Insearch and during their time with Youth Insearch at regular intervals.

The purpose is to ascertain the level risk to the young person when leaving the weekend workshop; what reporting is required by Youth Insearch; and what support and follow-up will be required following the program.

If the Team Leader forms a reasonable belief that the child is at risk of harm when returning to their current living environment; the Team Leader must make an immediate report to the State Reporting Agency (See Appendix 2).

If the Support Adult or Community Coordinator forms a reasonable belief that the child is at risk of harm when leaving the Support Group; the Support Adult or Community Coordinator must make an immediate report to the State Reporting Agency and police (See Appendix 2).

If the Support Adult or Community Coordinator forms a reasonable belief that the child is not at risk when returning to their current living environment, yet have a reasonable belief that child abuse has occurred; the Team Leader must make a report within 24 hours of the report to the State Reporting Agency (See Appendix 2).

The Support Adult or Community Coordinator is required to complete an incident report and is responsible for forwarding all incident reports and report notifications to the State Coordinator and Program Manager within 24 hours of the Support Group.

The Program Manager is responsible for ensuring all reporting has complied with this policy and the reporting requirements for each State.

If it is alleged that a member of staff, contractor or a volunteer may have committed an offence or have breached the organisation's policies or its Code of Conduct the person concerned may be stood down (with pay, where applicable) while an investigation is conducted.

The General Manager must record the details of the allegation, conduct or conviction and advise the CEO.

The meeting/teleconference will be held with the General Manager and another representative of Youth Insearch, the staff/volunteer and a support person of their choice present. The staff/volunteer will be told that the allegation is to be reported to the appropriate child safety body.

The staff/volunteer is to have no involvement with Youth Insearch activities involving children until the child protection investigation has been finalised.

The staff/volunteer is not to attempt any communication with the alleged victim or victim's family.

Youth Insearch will maintain regular communication during the child protection investigation, in relation to any changes in the volunteer's situation with regard to involvement in Youth Insearch activities.

4.6 INVESTIGATING

If the appropriate child protection service or the police decide to conduct an investigation of this report, all employees, contractors or volunteers must co-operate fully with the investigation.

Whether or not the authorities decide to conduct an investigation, the CEO will consult with the authorities to determine whether an internal investigation is appropriate. If it is decided that such an investigation will not conflict with any proceeding of the authorities, the CEO may decide to conduct such an investigation. All employees, contractors and volunteers must co-operate fully with the investigation.

Any such investigation will be conducted according to the rules of natural justice.

The CEO will make every effort to keep any such investigation confidential; however, from time to time other members of staff may need to be consulted in conjunction with the investigation.

After an initial review and a determination that the suspected abuse warrants additional investigation, the CEO shall coordinate the investigation with the appropriate investigators and / or law enforcement officials. Internal or external legal representatives will be involved in the process, as deemed appropriate.

4.7 OUTCOME OF INVESTIGATION

The findings of the investigation will also be reported to any external body as required.
